RACE APPRAISAL

ANALYSIS: Let's start with Uncle Reg and Touchdown Brown. The former is making a move from the NW3 Starter ranks to the NW3 claiming ranks and that can be a bigger change than the 10 point difference would suggest. He really ran well at Los Al and that June 30 score would dominate the Charting. However, his 132 Final Time Rating stands out as exceptional, so we chose a slower heat and he still wins on paper. The latter has been off since Glatt claimed him last August out of a similar NW3 claimer. Glatt makes him claimproof in his return and he's put a string of good works into him. We don't be surprised if he wins and comes right back and beats $32,000 claimers. Honeymoon Suite has been off for five months and is up in class, but he's got speed and is shoot for the hat trick. He may make a positive impression. Neighbor Neon Lights (ire) is another making the Starter-to-Claimer move and his turf route marks stack up well. He has odds-beating potential. Trust Daddy figures in the hunt and may get a good tracking trip from the inside while John Dunbar fits on class and may come running late. Hula Candy has his price halved in his first start off the claim for Knapp and his turf route numbers stack up well.

CLOSERS: Fastest in the stretch in recent races at or near this distance have been: Park City :31.1 - Kahuna Magic and John Dunbar :31.8 - Phoenician Ghost :32.0

HORSE COMMENTS

Trust Daddy is entered for less than the price claimed April 14 after chasing and tiring on the grass Aug 17. He's won on dirt and he figures 'right there' on paper. He has odds-beating potential.

Curry is an 8-yr that has had trouble staying on the track. He was never a threat in his Aug 3 return. That was his first start in 23 months and perhaps recency will help.

John Dunbar does well on paper and has done his winning in dirt sprints. He's back in for the price claimed June 16 and may be able to make an impression. He figures to get lost in the wagering, too. Add him to the list of potential odds-beaters.

Hula Candy is moved to dirt for the first time after being claimed by Knapp for $40,000 Aug 18. That was his first start in nearly four months and Knapp halves his price. This one is bred to handle dirt as a son of Twirling Candy and he may be coming on late. His turf route numbers stack up well.

Uncle Reg is moved to the NW3 ranks from the Starter ranks. He earned a big number when beating NW2 Starter types at Los Al (we used a different race in the Charting and he still plots on top). He's in for $30,000 less than Baltas & Co. paid and his plotted race sticks out as an exception, but it's his only recent dirt race.

Kahuna Magic found the winner's circle again when Shirreffs dropped in with $12,500 NW2 types July 21. He rallied that day and will likely get a similar ride today. He figures close enough to be dangerous.

Touchdown Brown was claimed out of a runner-up try for this tag 54 weeks ago and is unraced since then. Glatt makes him claimproof and that's generally been a real positive from his barn. This one has been training fast and seems well meant.

Phoenician Ghost upset $25,000 NW2 claimers on grass at Santa Anita June 14 and the speedster is moved to dirt and shortened up for his second start at the meeting. His dirt sprint record sounds a cautionary note.

Neon Lights (IRE) wears front wraps and is another being moved from turf to dirt. He was competitive with NW3 Starter types this spring and the Starter to restricted claimer tends to be a productive move.

Honeymoon Suite has been off since beating $12,500 NW2 types April 17. He's shooting for the hat trick and he's quicker than his slow comeback works might suggest. Watch the betting.

Park City was claimed for this price Nov 11 and has been off since a poor Nov 24 dirt mile. He's done his winning around two turns and may be prepping.

RACE CLASS LEVEL (RCL) CHANGES

The Digest adjusts its Race Class Levels (RCL) quarterly, most recently changing when the horses had their Jan 1 'birthday'.

Since that date, we have updated our current RCL charts to better reflect inflation and today's smaller horse population. We will occasionally run the updated RCL chart, but we'll send you a copy if you email the Digest @ info@todaysracingdigest.com

The biggest changes this quarter come in the 3-yo division, as we have lowered the Stakes, Allowance and Maiden RCLs from 5 to 20 points, with the Stakes being lowered the most to reflect the fact that horses will now move directly from Maiden and NW1 Allowance wins into Stakes.

We also lowered the older claiming races, starting at the $32,000 level, by 5 points and have lowered Classified Allowances from a base of 185 to 170 since they are now mostly commonly found as part of NW2 Allowance races. We'll bump the RCL up if the race is part of a NW3 or NW4 Allowance, but such races are few and far between these days.

The latest update began on July 1. The final update will be Oct 1. We've increased RCL's for 2-yo and 3-yo racing for quarter 3.
