RACE APPRAISAL

ANALYSIS: Not So Holy drops to this level for the first time after five starts and he was 6th last time out Sept 15. The gelding charts well off that effort, he has pressing speed and a fast work Oct 12 suggests he is doing well. Holy could look much improved this afternoon as the HF 15a. D Day finished 7th or 8th in all three starts all vs. straight Maidens. His numbers are going the wrong way, but he has a right to reverse that pattern at this level and the trainer stats are solid. J. Torres strings along and the soph is another that could look much improved. Lucchesi finished 10th vs. $30,000 Maiden-Claiming routers Sept 12 and was 10th last time out vs. $30,000 Maiden-Claiming sprinters in the slop Sept 28. He did finish in the Trifecta in his previous three dirt sprints and all three were over a dry track. Should the rains stay away, Lucchesi might perk back up and we'll give him the HF 20. Maestro would top the charting off either of his two starts vs. straight Maidens on the softer circuits. J. Elliott is in to ride back and he has good early speed. The gelding might fit well with this group in his local debut and we'll give him a look. CLOSERS: Fastest in the stretch in recent races at or near this distance have been: Phenomenal Dream :32.8 - Maestro :33.6 - Code One :33.7
