RACE APPRAISAL

Favoring midpack runners and closers this one puts frontrunners at a slight disadvantage. Plaisir d'Amour and Pioneer Mission might try to set the tempo, but neither looks particularly imposing upfront. This moderate pace setup will likely benefit horses capable of rating comfortably midpack or launching late rallies.

Stellify, coming from the powerful Cox barn hitting at a sizzling 33%, figures prominently after a competitive third-place debut effort at this class and distance. Her strong recent workouts underline her fitness, making her a solid contender. Hope Mission, from the Walsh barn, also shows sharp recent form and boasts high FIRE and CPR ratings, positioning her to make a strong late bid. Positive Carry (IRE), despite recent trouble, holds solid class lines, and her performances against better company suggest significant upside today if she avoids trouble.

Trainer DeVaux brings Sands of War and Faded Jeans (GB), both lightly raced but showing flashes of potential. Sands of War, particularly, offers intrigue with sharp workouts suggesting readiness despite the layoff. Conversely, horses stepping significantly up in class like Nana Grace and Lolo's Girl might find today's field challenging, while distance and form raise legitimate concerns for both.

Stellify appears perfectly positioned for a breakout performance given Cox's recent success rate and her promising debut and our HF15a. Hope Mission and Positive Carry (IRE) offer formidable threats, especially if they secure clean trips.

HORSE COMMENTS

Nana Grace – Steps up in class, which could be tough. Amoss barn is steady but not blazing lately. Recent workouts are acceptable but her running style might find today's pace challenging.

Machiva – Recent performances leave much to be desired, with Dorochenko's barn struggling for wins recently. Her turf figures are respectable, but overall inconsistency makes her tough to endorse strongly today.

Stellify – Solid contender from the hot Cox barn, debuting impressively at this exact distance and class. Consistent FIRE figures and sharp recent works indicate she's primed for improvement and a potential win today.

Pioneer Mission – Likely to show early speed, but stamina concerns remain after fading last out. Forster's current form is ice-cold, adding to reservations.

Lolo's Girl – Class jump today seems ambitious given recent performances. Wilson's barn has decent stats but faces a tough task here, making her a probable longshot.

Sands of War – Returning from a layoff, DeVaux's filly has trained impressively. Despite limited turf experience, barn's strong turf route record suggests she's prepared for a big run if ready off the bench.

Positive Carry (IRE) – Encountered trouble last out, which likely affected her finish. Gelner barn solid enough, and past performances against tougher opposition suggest she's a genuine threat with a clean trip today.

Faded Jeans (GB) – Only one race to judge, and though DeVaux barn can fire fresh, she must significantly step forward off a modest debut. Works have been solid, but cautious optimism is advised.

Hope Mission – Offers attractive consistency with steady figures, and recent sharp workouts from Walsh barn confirm readiness. Major threat late if pace scenario unfolds as expected.

Plaisir d'Amour – Inconsistent recently, and McPeck's barn struggling to secure wins lately. Though possessing decent speed figures, current form and class raise doubts.

J Bear Beach – Tough to endorse based on recent poor efforts, and significant distance and surface questions persist. Calhoun barn usually reliable, but hard to see improvement substantial enough to contend today.

Win for Speight – Amoss trainee displayed promise in last start despite a challenging trip. Decent FIRE rating and improving form make her an intriguing outsider who can make some noise late.
