RACE APPRAISAL

This turf mile for maidens is wide open, but the race shape tilts toward the mid-pack stalkers and finishers. Beyond Lucky is listed as a frontrunner and she'll likely inherit the lead by default. She'll face token pressure at best. That's a mild concern for anyone trying to close from far back — this could be a moderate to soft pace — but Santa Anita's turf layout generally rewards stalkers and mid-pack movers when things are even. The early setups rarely let speed hold without legit pace figures behind it. Class-wise, no one is dropping or stepping up significantly — all runners are competing at the same class level, so we're playing a straight-up battle of talent and form. From a performance figure standpoint, Runyon Canyon and Current Affair sit atop the pile. Both have FTR ratings that stand out — 122 for Runyon Canyon, and 122 for Current Affair as well — and their Fast Figs and FIRE patterns suggest they can carry pace and finish. Nafisa is always there but never gets the job done — her pattern says seconditis. She's hit the board at this level multiple times but keeps finding ways not to finish the job. On the flip side, Cailin Dana has put up strong late numbers but also looks like she's been typecast as a grinder who settles for minors. This looks like Runyon Canyon's race to finally seal the deal as the HF 15a.

CLOSERS: Fastest in the stretch in recent races at or near this distance have been: Current Affair :23.9 – Cailin Dana :24.0

HORSE COMMENTS

Cailin Dana is a comebacker who's been grinding away without showing a real winning instinct. She's run some respectable FTRs, including a 119 last out, and she's been competitive at this level. Her workout pattern includes a solid 1:00.2 drill on March 9, so she's fit, but she has had her chances at this level without a breakthrough. She's a threat to grab another minor piece, but not a strong win candidate.

Nafisa has tactical speed and has hit the board multiple times against similar. Her FTRs have been consistent — 116 last out and a 114 two back — but she continues to get passed in the stretch. The barn is firing at 26.7%, so you know she'll be well-prepped, but she's one of those fillies who does everything but win. She fits, but she's not one to trust in the top spot.

Honky Tonk Rhythm makes her debut for a barn that hasn't had any success with first-time starters or turf routers. Her recent works have been average at best, with nothing flashy to suggest she's live today. Would be a major surprise if she jumps up and wins this in her first try. Likely to need the experience

Beyond Lucky has early speed and might find herself on the lead by default. She faded badly in her last start and but she has likely matured since raced and her barn can fire with layoff stock. Her Mar. 9 work was okay, but Ripsoli takes the call and a check of the tote couldn't hurt.

Current Affair brings strong figures and a barn that's red-hot with this type. She's run well at longer distances and stretches back out today to a mile, which may be just what she needs to close the deal. Her last turf route produced a 122 FTR, and her work tab is impressive — a bullet :47.6 on March 14 plus a :59.8 before that. She'll stalk and pounce and might get first jump on the closers. Serious contender.

Runyon Canyon looks like the one who gets the trip if ready. She's got tactical speed, has been close multiple times, and her 122 FTR last out was legit. Her barn doesn't win very often with comebackers, but she ran well off the bench last year and the race shape plus her consistency figures to attract plenty of attention. Berrios is aboard and she seems to merit tote and paddock checks.
